

Wednesday Elections Draw 10 Candidates

By TOM SMITH

A total of 16 Saint Joseph's students have filed petitions in bids for next year's class offices as of Wednesday night.

Balloting will take place Wednesday, May 6, during the noon and evening meals at both cafeterias and also between meals in Halleck Center. Voting returns will be in room 110 beginning at 7:30 p.m. that evening.

Juniors running for the office of senior class president are Pete Gallant, a political science major from Hicksville, New York, currently serving as junior class president; Mike Kennedy, finance major from Canton, Ohio; and Tom Scheller, history major from Toledo, Ohio, and vice-president of the Glee Club.

Four students are vying for the office of vice-president: Joe Mazzarelli, sociology major and member of the Courier Club from Moorestown, New Jersey; Doug Monforton, management major from Grosse Point Woods, Mich., and current junior class vice-president; Jack Holbein, from Lima, Ohio, an "I" week co-ordinator and management major and Frank Leslie, management major from Scarsdale, N. Y.

Ted Mitrenga, a Chicago marketing major and this year's junior class treasurer, is seeking the post of senior class treasurer. Opposing him is Larry Cummings, finance major from Niles, Ill.

Dan Iles, history major from Rochester, New York, and Most Valuable Varsity Wrestler for three consecutive years, is currently the sole candidate for senior class secretary.

The junior class office of president has two candidates: Donn Jones, political science major from Chicago, a member of the Glee Club, and sophomore class secretary; and Mike Gresk, history major from Wheaton, Ill., this year's sophomore class vice-president.

Uncontested candidate for junior class vice-president is Larry Johnson, music major from Mt. Vernon, Ohio, and senator from Bennett Hall.

The treasurer's office is being sought by Larry Kwiat, accounting-finance major from Oak Lawn, Ill. Kwiat was freshman class treasurer two years ago.

Sophomore class president has only one candidate: Bob Matichuk, psychology major from Milwaukee.

Jan Garbon, psychology major from Cincinnati, is seeking the office of sophomore class vice-president. She currently holds that office as a freshman.

'Stop The World' This Weekend

Columbian Players Greg Fosnaugh and Emily Scott lead the singing cast of "Stop the World, I Want to Get Off" in the college auditorium Friday and Sunday at 8 p.m., and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. This will be the Columbians' first musical since "The Fantastics" in the spring of 1968. Fosnaugh is a seasoned performer on the SJC stage, while Miss Scott makes her campus debut this weekend.

'Stairway To The Stars' Chosen As Prom Theme

"Stairway to the Stars" will be the theme for this year's junior-senior Prom, to be held next weekend, May 8-9.

Activities include a "Happy Hour," picnic, two dances and the annual crowning of the prom queen, according to Pete Gallant, junior class president. Bands playing are "The Orphanage" and "Young-Holt Unlimited."

As a prelude to the prom, the Alumni Association is sponsoring a beer blast next Tuesday in the Halleck cafeteria from 9 p.m. to midnight.

Friday the Chicago rock group

"The Orphanage" will play for the Revels Dance in the ballroom from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Weather permitting, a picnic is scheduled for Saturday afternoon at a place yet to be determined. The senior cocktail hour will begin at 4 p.m. in the Halleck conference room, followed by a champagne dinner in Halleck cafeteria.

The 9 p.m. formal dance will have music by "Young-Holt Unlimited." Bassist Eldee Young and drummer Isaac "Red" Holt comprised two-thirds of the original Ramsey Lewis Trio, which produced the top-selling jazz arrangements of "The In Crowd" and "Hang On, Sloopy."

After breaking with Ramsey Lewis in 1966, Young-Holt Unlimited recorded "Wack Wack" and a more recent hit, "Soulful Strut."

The formal dance will last from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the Halleck ballroom. During the dance, the prom queen will be crowned.

Prom bids will be sold at noon and evening meals in the Halleck cafeteria through next Thursday. Bid prices of $35 includes tuxedo rental, favors, flowers and dinner.

Rensselaer, Indiana, Thursday, April 30, 1970

No. 21

Hein, Teckman To Head '70-'71 STUFF

Co-editors of STUFF for 1970-'71 will be Tom Teckman, junior English major from Lakewood, Ohio, and Ed Hein, history major from Evergreen Park, Ill., according to Charles J. Schuttrow, director of public information and college advisor to STUFF.

Pat Riha, junior political science major from Camdenton, Mo., will remain in his present position as sports editor.

The new editors will begin managing the paper with next week's May 7 edition. They will relieve present editors James Ahr and Steve Schrader, who headed the newspaper's staff for the past two years, during which STUFF was accorded three consecutive "All-American" ratings from the Associated Collegiate Press.

In announcing the most recent rating, ACP judges notified STUFF this month of the newspaper's achievements for last semester by awarding the paper 3610 out of a possible 3950 points.

STUFF received four out of a possible five "Marks of Distinction" for "unusually high quality and especially creative or distinctly lively, appealing work" in the areas of writing and editing, editorial leadership, physical appearance and photography.

BlueKey Outlines Convocation Topics, Panelists

Question cards for Blue Key's "State of the College" Convocation will be collected no later than next Tuesday's Senate meeting, announced Tom Madison, president of the college chapter of Blue Key National Honor Fraternity.

Cards were distributed to Student Senators at the April 22 Senate meeting. Madison advised any student who has not received question cards or any Senator

New Management

STUFF will be under new management next week, as Tom Teckman and Ed Hein become co-editors of what makes Thursday night worth waiting for. To them go our best wishes and sympathy, and to our associates, allies and targets over the past two years go other words of departure:

To those who have given generously of their time, interest and patience, we offer our thanks, because their contributions have made our jobs easier and our results more effective;

To those who have made the news and events we've reported and commented on, we thank them for making Saint Joseph's maybe even worth staying at over the weekends;

And to those who have responded to criticism with backbiting; to those who think that a student's only possible contribution to the school is his $2430 a year; and to those who have refused to realize that the student deserves and not just desires a voice in the college, we offer our hopes that Saint Joseph's will narrow that gap between where we are now and the 25 years ahead we're advertised to be, and offer our condolences to those left behind when we get there.—J. A.

Punch-Drunk

'The Bigger They Are . . .'

By Art Hoppe

As a patriotic American, I protest and decry my country's growing involvement in Cambodia and Laos.

It's wars like these that are destroying our military efficiency, sapping our confidence and vigor and ruining our reputation as a first-class fighting nation.

For these wars are, let's face it, strictly bush league. For more than 20 years now, we've been taking on a string of third-rate opponents. Stumblebums. Is it any wonder we can't even lick tiny little North Vietnam?

As any fighting man knows—whether he fights on the squash court, the football field or in the prize ring—nothing more thoroughly erodes your skills than taking on a string of third-rate opponents.

You get lazy. You get overconfident. You skip practice. The first thing you know, your timing goes. You may enter a few wins in the old record book, but no one's much impressed. "Who'd he ever lick?" they say. "A bunch of stumblebums."

Think back to 1946. There we were, co-champions of the world. We'd just clobbered top-ranked Germany, Italy and Japan. We could've retired undefeated, admired and adulated by all, with the longest win streak in modern organized warfare.

But we couldn't quit. We had to go up against tiny, little North Korea. It looked like a breather, but we were lucky to settle for a tie.

Naturally, after that every third-rater wanted to take us on. What did they have to lose? If we beat them, people would just shrug and say, "What did you expect—a big, tough country like America."

But if the little guy pulls off an upset, it's the making of him. And you know how spectators always root for the underdog. Who's rooting for us these days?

You can't blame the Pentagon. Coaches always like an easy schedule. The Generals get to fatten up their batting averages with a 10-1 kill ratio in Vietnam. But we can't even beat these scrawny little Asians. Right now we're praying for a tie.

Do you realize that in the past 24 years the only opponent we've licked is The Dominican Republic? What kind of record is that? It shows what a lack of challenge can do to a first-class fighting nation.

So to take on the Pathet Lao in Laos and the whoever-it-is in Cambodia would be courting disaster. From the recent track record, odds are we'd blow it. After that it would be all downhill, until we're fighting in tank countries like Andorra, Sarawak and Upper Volta.

Far better, I say, to go up one more time against a first-rate opponent worthy of our mettle. Let's take on Russia. At least we'd all go out in a blaze of glory. What patriot's heart doesn't leap up at the thought?

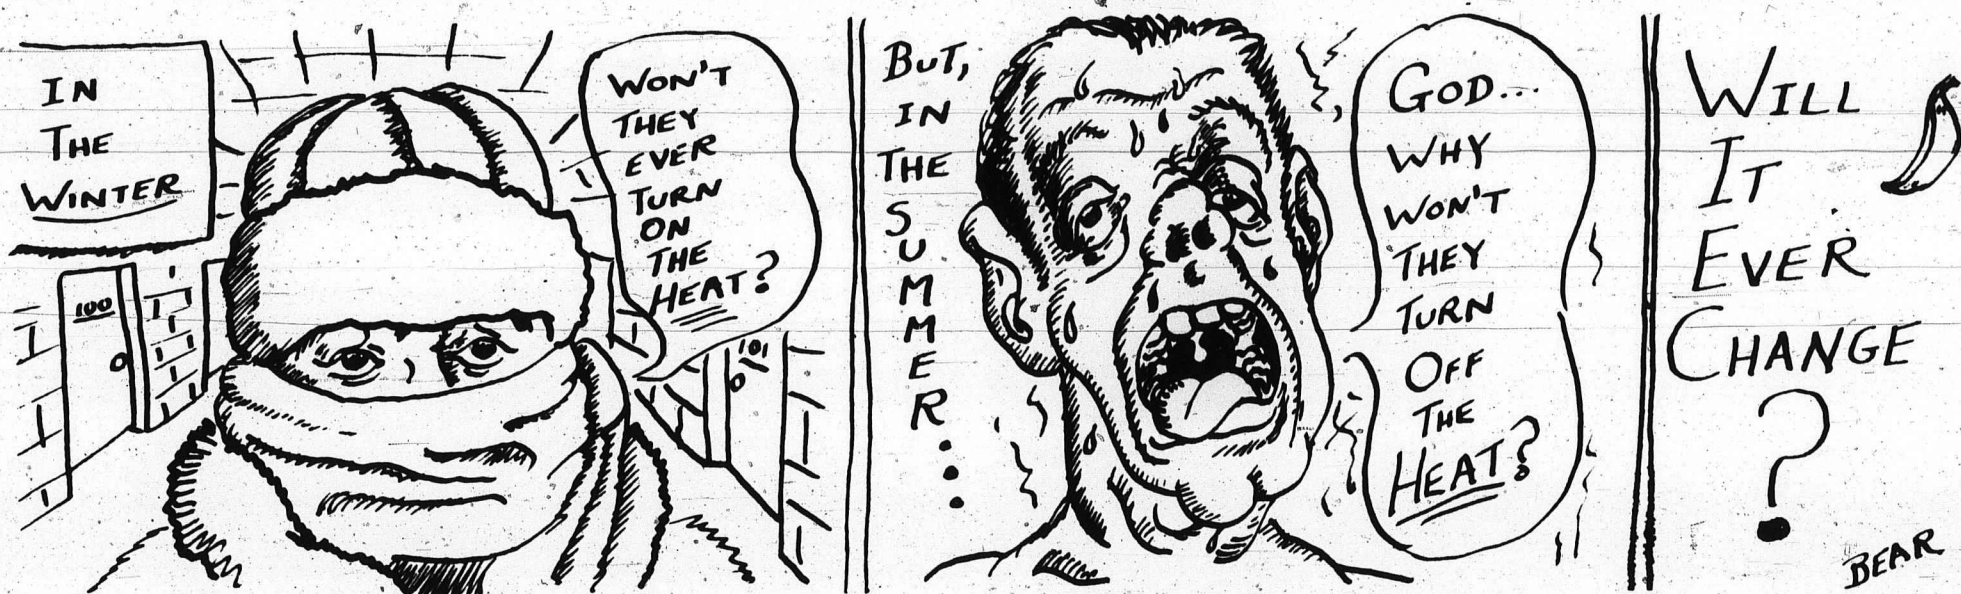

But it's still not too late to retire undefeated. Let's say we accept a tie in Vietnam and a default in Laos and Cambodia. Eight wins, two ties and a default isn't a record to be sneered at.

Clearly, those are the only patriotic alternatives: a graceful retirement from the fight game or a thermonuclear dead heat with Russia. But, whatever, these dreary, two-bit, back-room brawls with fourth-raters have got to stop.

There's nothing sadder than an old champ who's become a punch-drunk has-been.

Worth Saving

As this year's Student Association officers end their tenure of service at next Tuesday's Student Senate meeting, they will leave behind them one of the most remarkable, successful terms of office in recent student government at Saint Joseph's.

The Student Senate, the future of which last year looked shaky to say the least, has been considerably solidified and made responsible by the leadership and cooperation which the Senators have received this year from Messrs. Holda, Czarnecki, Carrico, and Griffin.

Probably the most enduring contribution of the SA this year, however, is the placement of students on important faculty-administration committees.

This was due in great part to the hard work and perseverance of President Holda, who capitalized on the necessary faculty-administration cooperativeness vital to the approval and welcoming of student representatives. It is a credit to Holda that the various committees were in no way coerced into such approval and that their approval was sought in a spirit of understanding.

Besides Senate responsibility and student representation on faculty-administration committees, the third major success of this year's SA is the "I" program, an ingenious use of the current campus trend of decentralization of social and cultural planning. Presuming that this trend continues, the "I" program could prove to be as substantial and enduring as the other two achievements of the Student Association.

However, as must be admitted by any observer of student government at Saint Joseph's, the continued success or the failure of any SA innovation depends mainly upon the dedication and hard work of each group of SA officers.

Therefore, it is particularly encouraging that the new officers—Fred Giel, Denny Boyle, Ed Poropat, and Bob Neville—all voiced an interest in their campaigns to preserve the benefits gained by this year's SA, as contrasted to traditional candidates' promises of cleaning up after their predecessors' failures.

Holda's administration has changed the mind of many a doubting Thomas concerning the effectiveness, relevance, and responsibility of student government and student involvement in major college decision-making processes.

The officers who will take the reins of student government Tuesday night show every indication of furthering this year's success and are strongly encouraged to capitalize upon the progress made by Holda and company, and to spread the faith in the dedication of the Saint Joe student to his college community.—S. Glee Club, Band, Girls' Chorus To Offer Joint Concert Sunday

By DON BLAKE

Saint Joseph's College Glee Club, under the direction of Dr. John Egan, chairman of the music department, and the Concert Band, directed by Gary Smith, will present their second joint concert this Sunday, May 3, at 2:30 p.m. in the fieldhouse.

Later in the week, the same groups will travel to high schools in Fort Wayne, Indianapolis, and Huntington, Ind., in an effort to recruit new students for the college.

Sunday's program will feature four pieces by the Concert Band, including a Sousa march and "Drammatico," a serious composition by W. Francis McBeth. The Women's Chorus will sing four numbers followed by the Men's Glee Club, whose selections will include three Negro spirituals.

The "Blue Knights" stage band will perform Leonard Bernstein's "Tonight" from West Side Story and two other numbers. The Concert Band and Chorus will then rejoin for the final piece, Samuel Ward's "America the Beautiful."

The Concert Band and Glee Club will leave Thursday, May 7, for Huntington Catholic High School, their first stop on the two-day promotion tour.

After an early-morning concert there, the group will travel to Bishop Dwenger High School in Fort Wayne for an afternoon concert. They next head for Indianapolis, where they will give two Friday morning concerts at Roncalli High School and the Latin School.

Letters

'Officers Necessary'

Dear Sirs:

At this time, I would like to take issue with the statements of that committee studying the feasibility of class officers. It is inconceivable that any one man (even with committees) could run the class that four men now run.

The duties of the vice-president, treasurer and secretary are indeed necessary, if for no reason other than the personal contact and the identification they give the members of that class.

It seems that many people are laboring under the misconception that class officers do nothing and are therefore relatively useless. Again, I take issue. If conscientious, responsible men and women are originally elected, the duties of the various offices work themselves out.

May I suggest that a committee be appointed to check into the competency of the officials, and not the offices.

Michael J. Gresk
Ed. note: Mr. Gresk is presently vice-president of the sophomore class and is running for president of the junior class.

Poetry Reading Slated

Harold Isbell, Director of the Writing Program at St. Mary's College, South Bend, Ind., will read selections from his own poetry Sunday, May 3, at 7 p.m. in the Halleck Center Conference Room.

Isbell has had poems published in The Nation, Prairie Schooner, Commonweal, Catholic Worker and other national magazines. He has also translated into English several thousand lines of Latin poetry, part of which will be published by Penguin Books in their Classics Series.

Isbell's reading is being sponsored by the Saint Joseph's English department.

Huntington Collapses Under Puma Power

The Pumas pounced on the pitching of Huntington College, Huntington, Ind., yesterday and swept a doubleheader, 9-6 and 4-2, while increasing their season record to 9-7.

SJC was never behind in the opening contest as Dave Ruhe drove in two runs in the first inning with his first of three hits in that game. The Saints collected 12 hits in the contest, the big blow being Jack Scalise's two-run homer in the sixth inning. Huntington scored four runs in their half of the sixth off Matt Keller, who relieved the winning pitcher, Ron Unavitch, 3-3 in the third. Wally Klag came on and relieved Keller, allowing only one hit during his brief stint.

Huntington jumped off to a quick two-run lead in the first inning of the second game. The Saints scored in the third and finally took the lead on Ruhe's two-run blast in the fifth. It was his fifth round-tripper of the season.

The Pumas best defensive performance of the year provided Dave Gandolph, 2-1, with the win after he relieved Gary Batchellor in the fourth inning.

SJC's Pumas split an ICC doubleheader with DePauw here last Saturday afternoon, winning the opener, 3-2, then dropping the second game, 5-2.

In the first game, pitcher Gary Batchellor gained his second win of the season, relieving Ron Unavitch in the fifth. All the scoring the Saints needed came in the first inning with a three-run burst. The Tigers picked up two runs but failed to overcome the Saints' early rally.

DePauw batsmen got nine hits off losing hurler Dave Gandolph and reliever Unavitch in the second game. Tiger pitcher Rick Overman went the distance for the visitors while containing the Saints with four hits.

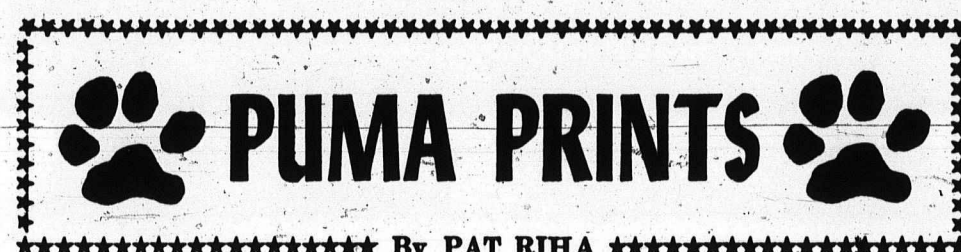

Coach George Post's club enjoyed their most prosperous day of the season at Aquinas College Sunday with a doubleheader win over the Tommies. The Pumas proved they can win the close ones by taking the opener, 8-7, then posting a 4-3 decision in the nightcap.

In the opener, Gandolph, who relieved starter Matt Keller in the fifth inning, picked up the win for the Pumas. Spearheading the attack was Jack Scalise's pinch hit grand slam homer in the sixth, while Tom Nixon's single in the seventh drove in Dan McCarthy for the winning run.

Opening with a solo run in the first inning, the Pumas never trailed in game two. Pinch-hitter Dave Scudder paced the game-winning burst in the fifth with a double, and Scalise followed by slamming his second home run of the day. Starting hurler Wally Klag (2-0) picked up the win for the Pumas.

Coach Post says the Pumas must beat the Crusaders, now 4-0, in the ICC in the doubleheader at Valpo coming up Saturday. Valpo, noted for its stingy pitching, shut out Evansville twice this season. Post feels both games with Valpo will be tight, low-scoring ball games.

Next Wednesday, the Saints meet Chicago State in a twin bill at Chicago.

Wake up Pumas! Soccer is here. The SJC Soccer Club has brought this "foreign" sport to the Jasper County corn fields.

While the Soccer Club is gaining in notoriety, it still needs more members if it is to become as popular as the traditional Indiana sports of watching soy beans grow, hog calling, spelling bees, cock fighting, and corn shucking.

Played with continuous speed and teamwork, the sport has more action than "Americanized" football. If you want to see an exciting sport which demands near-physical perfection, don't miss the soccer game at 1 p.m. Sunday in front of the fieldhouse.

Maybe even someday the tradition-minded athletic department will realize the benefits of a winning minor sports team which needs little financial backing, and will implement soccer as a varsity sport and into the IM sports program.

BASEBALL BITS: Saturday the Saints' baseball team travels north to play Valparaiso. Puma head coach George Post will have the potential on the squad to crush the Crusaders, undefeated in ICC competition this season, if he can minimize the mistakes in the error-prone infield.

The Crusaders, who give athletic scholarships for baseball while SJC doesn't, have defeated the Pumas in 35 of 46 previous contests.

Within striking distance of three all-time SJC records is Dave Ruhe. Currently Ruhe posts a .520 BA, the record being .500 by Gene Eifred in 1947. He has slammed five round-trippers in pursuit of Bob Wasni's six in 1954 which was tied by Ken Dokus in 1964. Ruhe's 21 RBI's give him a solid shot of surpassing coach Post's record 24 RBI's in 1962.

POST

Other outstanding Puma performances include a .289 BA by frosh flash Tom Nixon, the seven stolen bases of Mark Swary, the 2.57 ERA of Matt Keller, and Ron Unavitch's 2.86 ERA.

Puma linksmen served as hosts last weekend at Curtis Creek Country Club, clubbed Indiana State, 11-7, and thrashed Valpo, 16-5.

Friday, the Saints upended Indiana State behind the steady play of Chuck Hall, Ron Fueger, Bill Prindiville, Chip Henrick, and team captain Bob McCready, who recently removed one of the clubhouse lounge windows with an errant drive.

Prindiville, the team's number one golfer, led the attack on Valpo Saturday by touring the course in a 74. Hall seconded Prindiville with a 78. McCready notched an 80, Fueger an 83, and Hendrick, Bob Whyte, and George Cavallari followed with 84's.

SJC golfers have two matches this week, hosting Wabash today and DePauw Saturday.

PUMETTE POWER: Athletic Director Richard Scharf announced this week that all co-eds who are registered as phy-ed majors will be allowed to graduate with a degree in phy-ed. Unfortunately, no more co-eds will be allowed to register as majors in that department.

Intrasquad Game Saturday To End Spring Grid Drills

By JOHN RILEY

SJC's annual intrasquad football game, which marks the end of spring practice, will be held Saturday afternoon at 1 p.m.

The two teams are chosen by a lottery system according to position. In this manner, the teams are evenly divided according to positions without overloading one team with the better players.

Four seniors will be coaching the teams. The Purple team has Steve Cusick leading its offense, and Mike Swierk handling the coaching chores for the defense.

The Whites' offense is directed by Tom Green, while Jerry Lasko pilots the defense. All four coaches are former members of the Puma football varsity.

The game will be played under regular season conditions with the players only slightly restricted in their game plans.

Head coach Bill Jennings and defensive coach Ernie Fritsch are objectively viewing the game with next year's varsity season in mind. They will be paying close attention to the reactions of the newer players under pressure.

Such intrasquad games in the past, notes Jennings, have actually been old-timers games. These games eventually resulted in less benefit for the Puma gridders, so the participation is now restricted exclusively to present members of SJC's football squad.

Awards after the game will be presented to the outstanding offensive lineman, running back, defensive lineman, and defensive halfback during spring practice.

Recipients will be chosen prior to the game by all the members of the football team based on spring drills.

IM News

By BILL LESSARD

Girls' IM volleyball has one more day of competition, but the Hot Dogs have clinched the championship with a 5-0 record. The Born Winners, currently with a 3-2 record, will finish second.

Three 16" softball teams have been organized by the co-eds to compete twice with each other in determining the championship.

There are 15 participants in the IM golf tournament, which will be decided by the low score through 36 holes.

The IM track and field meet will be held Monday at 3:30 p.m. in front of Alumni Fieldhouse.

A single-elimination tennis tournament is underway for singles competition in the IM sport. Doubles competition consists of six games. The team which finishes with the best won-lost record will be the champions.

By STEVE McCORMICK

Saint Joseph's Soccer Club started its 1970 season at Valparaiso Sunday by defeating the Crusaders, 3-1.

Soccer demands stamina, speed, and precision and all of these elements were clearly evident in Sunday's win. Puma Pancho Guardia opened the SJC attack in the second quarter with a driving goal. The Crusaders tied the score in the third period, but the Saints came roaring back.

Goals by Paul Mamon and Bill Davis iced the match for SJC in the third quarter. Outstanding performances by Phil Chung and goalie Steve Pettitt shut out Valpo in the fourth quarter for the Puma victory.

The Soccer Club was founded two years ago, and has gradually improved its performances over the years. While its schedule varies from year to year, the club always plays two matches with the Crusaders, one game here and one at Valparaiso.

The team began practice three weeks ago. They stress various agility drills which increase the team's speed and coordination under match conditions.

The club, which receives no official sports recognition from the athletic department, has become an object of interest for many SJC students.

The Saints host Valpo in a return match this Sunday at 1 p.m. in front of the Fieldhouse. On Saturday, May 16, the club travels to Indiana State at Terre Haute, Ind., to face their toughest competition of the season.
